In the Matter of
Pickaway County State of Emergency Declaration Resolution:

Commissioner Brian Stewart offered the motion, seconded by Commissioner Jay Wippel, to adopt the following Resolution:

Resolution No.: PC-060920-31

WHEREAS, today, the Pickaway County Board of County Commissioners passed a resolution rescinding the state of emergency declaration for Pickaway County during their normally scheduled public meeting.

WHEREAS, Pickaway County Commissioner President Harold Henson said this is a necessary step forward in the County’s resumption of daily operations after dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic. "Nine weeks ago, the County implemented emergency measures to ensure that safety of our citizens and the continuity of government activities due to the projected impact of the COVID-19 virus,” Henson said. “As the State continues to roll back their Public Health Orders on limiting services and issues new guidance on moving forward, we felt it prudent to show the citizens of Pickaway County that we support their own efforts at returning to normal by rescinding our declaration.”
WHEREAS, although normal activities are resuming across the County, the Commissioners encourage residents to continue to follow the protocols for handwashing and social distancing which can help prevent a spike in the number of cases. “Although the immediate threat has diminished, we will continue to monitor the situation through the County Emergency Operations Center and implement immediate emergency actions should the need arise,” Henson said.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners hereby rescind the state of emergency declaration for Pickaway County.

The following is a summary of the report provided by April Dengler, County Administrator:

- Ms. Dengler sent out Tax Budget Worksheets Friday and are due to be returned by June 17th.
- Mr. Dengler received a request from Tawn Seimer, Soil & Water Conservation, to move to the vacant office in the downstairs level of the Service Center. Ms. Dengler will gather estimates for renovation costs.
- The HVAC is down at the courthouse. Repairs are taking place along with the lines being flushed. The unit should be up and running this week.
- Ms. Dengler reported that there was a water line break at the courthouse over the weekend and water damage was reported in the Auditor’s Office and Magistrate Harsha’s court room. The water was discovered to be from the piping from the HVAC system.
- Ms. Dengler attended a meeting with the Health Department regarding COVID testing for the public. Patients are to utilize the bottom back door entrance to the Service Center. The Health Department will hold a meeting with tenants of the Service Center to spell out their plan.
- Ms. Dengler was contacted by Ohio House Speaker Larry Householder’s Office checking to make sure that Pickaway County would not be entering into contracts with the Ohio Rail Development Commission. She reported that Mr. Scribner informed Ms. Dengler that we have other mechanisms to use besides ORDC.
- Ms. Dengler participated in the CARES Act webinar, senate bill 310. It uses local government fund formula & county formula used in 2019. The county auditor is responsible for distribution once OBM enter info into grants portal and the auditor establishes a county Coronavirus fund. The Commissioners would have to pass a resolution promising to use funds in accordance with federal law. A Relief Fund shall be established to receive funds for use by the Board of Commissioners. Any unspent funds will have to be payed back to the grant.

In the Matter of

Auditors End of Month Update:

Melissa Betz, Auditor, met with the Commissioners to provide an end-of-month report. The month ended with a balance of $9,687,252.94. The overall looks really good and the numbers shows the county is ahead at this time. The auto license was down statewide at 57% and the sales tax is assumed down by 12%. Mrs. Betz suggested no big changes with revenues at this time. Ms. Betz gave some insight on the CARES
Act teleconference call that she sat in on. They were told that they will be following the 2019 guideline for calculations and 1.1 million total that was received ($450,000 to Pickaway County) in 2019. The funds cannot be used to replace just any lost revenue. All participants must register for the program and there is concern about distributing funds to entities that did not register. The funds will only be returned from those that do not register. Mrs. Betz will be the representation as the grant administrator and Ms. Dengler will be listed as the grant contract for Pickaway County and the CARES program. The completed audit will review for allowable expenditures by the program. The other discussion was a program offering funds to local business for COVID-19 expenses, such as the hospital. Mrs. Betz will continue to meet with Ms. Dengler to gather additional information about the CARE Act. US Bank did send the invoice for the next 6-month Fairgrounds payment debt and it went down, and Ms. Betz requested to keep the payment the same as we have been paying and the Commissioners agreed to continue paying the same amount as in the past.

In the Matter of
Community Development Block Grant
Second Public Hearing:

Commissioner Harold Henson opened the meeting for the Community Development Block Grant Public Hearing and handing over to Hannah Diewald, CDC of Ohio. Ms. Diewald started with explaining some demolition that the New Holland Community is wanting for the slum and bright program. The village residence desire that the dilapidated properties be demolished. Commissioner Stewart explained what his understanding was that the demolition fees would be accessed to the delinquent taxes and Ms. Diewald described that since a grant is being used the cost cannot be accessed to the taxes and the grant will cover the cost. Companies will have to bid for the project of the demolition of the properties. Ms. Diewald asked the Commissioner how they felt about the demo and all three Commissioners expressed that they are wanting to pursue with the grant application for slum and bright.

Jeff Catri, Pickaway County Assistant Prosecutor, addresses two properties that have significant taxes due and has been contracted by the Pickaway County Treasurer to proceed to tax foreclosure. Mr. Catri’s concern is if he was to start the foreclosure process it will put a hold on the grant being allowed to used to improve the project. Mr. Catri explained that he can hold off on the foreclosure process for the grant to be utilized to improve the project. These are building that are public safety hazards and have become a nuisance of the village. The Neighborhood Revitalization grant through New Holland will proceed with demolition of dilapidated properties through the Slum and Bright Program.

Ms. Diewald does not know if the Darbyville paving project best fits for this year and suggested to put it toward the Neighborhood Revitalization Projects. The Commissioners discussed the list of projects provided for review to downsize the list of projects. Commissioner Stewart asked how long until a project drops off after completion to apply for a new project and Ms. Diewald stated that the Turner Drive project will be completed and should drop off soon.
