Circleville Herald:

Steven Collins, Circleville Herald, stopped in to ask the Commissioners if there are any other positive outcomes from COVID or CARES Act funds. Commissioner Scherer explained that there are some changes in legislation for income tax in the Columbus Areas. There are individuals that pay taxes for Columbus and do not live in the Franklin County. The changes may help the taxpayers that work in Franklin County and commute. Commissioner Wippel explained that certifications needed for farming or spraying are now on-line and makes it easier not having to spend the time in person. Commissioner Henson feels that it has made us realize that some meetings are not necessary, but, on the other hand the virtual meeting are more difficult for the older generation and the younger generations have easily adapted. This has also helped regarding the concerns for broadband, which will be beneficial for everyone. The Commissioners asked Mr. Collins if he has heard anything from the educational side and Mr. Collins explained that he received documents from the Circleville Superintendent and snow days may become a thing of the past. Mr. Collins has to continue sorting through the document.

In the Matter of Job and Family Services Update:

Joy Ewing, Job and Family Services Director met with the Commissioners to provide an update. The State is keeping funds to help statewide for foster care. The 58% increase is not all to be recoupment and is not going to the local levels for foster care families. The new thing for fraudulent unemployment's claims seems to be cards being sent to a resident's home in another individual's name. Mrs. Ewing read a few articles; one consists of abandonment of children and being dropped off at JFS. Those cases will be directed to the Prosecutor for abandonment; however, the child will be taken care of. The other article is teens in the foster system/ children services are not permitted to receive their driver license at the age of 16. There are currently 38 children in the system and 34 in residential placement. Family Children First is trying to provide services in the home.

Mrs. Ewing reported that Roxanne from OhioMeansJobs is retiring and her position will be posted in April. Mrs. Ewing is speaking with IPS to discuss the security system. Mrs. Ewing has concerns with Senate Bill 17, it seems to be more about fraud. Unemployment is reported at 5.2% for January 2021.
